TAKE A STAND

RAISING AWARENESS ABOUT
MENTAL HEALTH ISSUES

WHY DO IT?

CREATIVES AGAINST DEPRESSION

The stigma surrounding mental health has been an issue for centuries. Even with the numbers climbing as high as 1 out of every 3 people.

With that in mind, I made an effort to do my part with Creatives Against Depression and volunteering within my community on various boards. After a year, I realized a career change was in order, now working as a case manager at a local non-profit and attending Northwestern University studying for my Masters in Clinical Mental Health Counseling.
